Clyde Gooden – NANA Development Corporation – Vice President of Business Development

NANA Development (NDC) is the wholly owned division of NANA Regional Corporation; an Alaskan Native Corporation. NDC today has operations in all fifty states, over fourteen thousand employees with revenues exceeding one billion in sales. Clyde leads NANA's efforts in establishing global strategic partnerships and mentors a new generation of team members for NANA. Prior to Clyde's current position, he served as President of NANA Services in Seattle, Washington, growing that pure startup to $20M in revenue before turning over the company to new leadership and moving up to the parent organization. Clyde also spent more than eight years operating a privately held company with national customers like Safeway, Pay & Save, and Lamonts Apparel, as well as Alaska Government organizations like the State of Alaska, the City of Fairbanks, and the North Star Borough School District. For the last 20 years, Clyde has been committed to the growth and successful operational execution of NANA's businesses.
